30-MINUTE SUNDAY MEAL PREP

30 minutes on Sunday, eat well until Wednesday. This is what helps busy people most.

0-5 min

Rice cooker on. Pot 1: boil all the week's eggs (10 min). Pot 2: chicken soup or tomato meat sauce, simmer.

5-10 min

Marinate chicken: turmeric, black pepper, salt, garlic, lime. Portion 150 g.

10-25 min

Grill 3 chicken portions (air fryer, oven or flat pan). Freeze the rest raw in its marinade for Thu-Sat. Meanwhile wash and cut carrot, cabbage, cucumber, salad; cut fruit for 3 days.

25-30 min

Portion rice by the cup and cool it fast. Box everything, write the day. Wednesday night: move Thu & Fri chicken to the fridge. Friday night: move Saturday's.

Food safety: eat cooked chicken, soup and meat sauce within 3 days; freeze anything meant for Thursday onwards. Thawed raw chicken: cook within 1-2 days. Rice: cool fast, freeze, reheat until piping hot. Unpeeled boiled eggs keep ~1 week in the fridge. Cook leafy greens fresh; don't cut them early.

5 MONEY-SAVING TIPS

1. Buy a whole chicken and ask the seller to cut it and remove the skin. Usually cheaper per kg than breast. Portion 150 g per box and freeze.
2. Greek yogurt pricey? Strain plain no-sugar yogurt through a sieve + kitchen paper overnight in the fridge. Or swap the yogurt snack for 2 boiled eggs.
3. Local fruit in season (papaya, banana, guava, pineapple) instead of imported apples.
4. Veg and fish at the morning market. Eggs (tray of 30), rice, oats and milk at the hypermarket: one trip a week, list only.
5. Tofu and tempeh are cheap protein. Swap 2 chicken meals a week for grilled tofu/tempeh.

Cooking for the family? Multiply veg and rice by the number of people. Add ~150 g chicken/fish per person per meal.
